How To Make Your

Keiki FIELD GUIDE

Sea Grant
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI'I

1

start with your printed Keiki Field Guide, with the Practice side up when you fold, make sure the corners are lined up, and your creases are defined - this will help with the final fold!

2

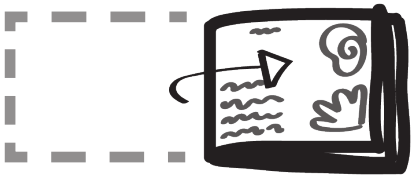
fold in half long-ways (hot dog style)

3

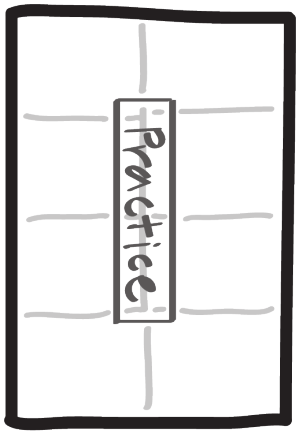


fold in half again, short-ways this time (hamburger style)

4

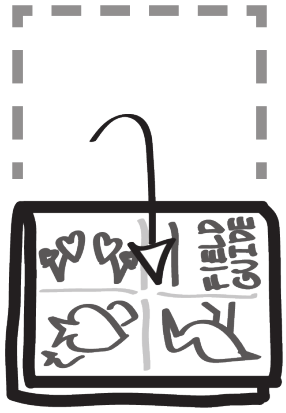
fold it in half again, same direction; the title page should be on top

5



unfold the page

6



fold it in half short-ways (hamburger style)

7

cut along the middle crease on the folded end, up to the first panel. on the Practice Field Guide, this will be marked by the dashed line

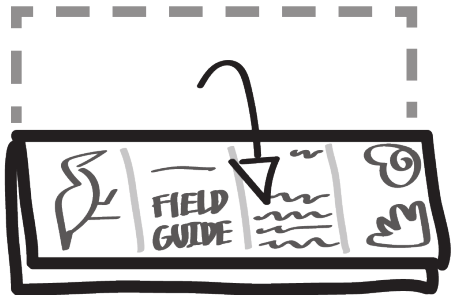
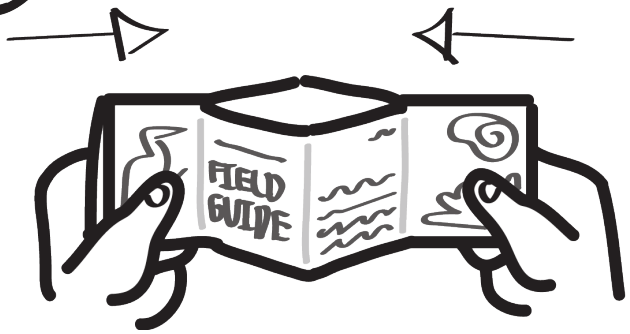
9



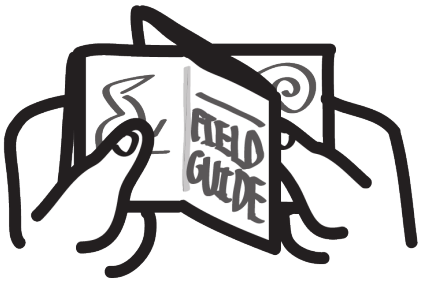
fold in half long-ways (hot dog style)

10



hold the two ends of the paper with the cut edge facing up, and slowly move the ends towards each other, so that the hole in the middle starts pushing out and forming a diamond. you can use your hands to open the diamond and make sure it forms

11



push all the way until the diamond flattens in the middle 12

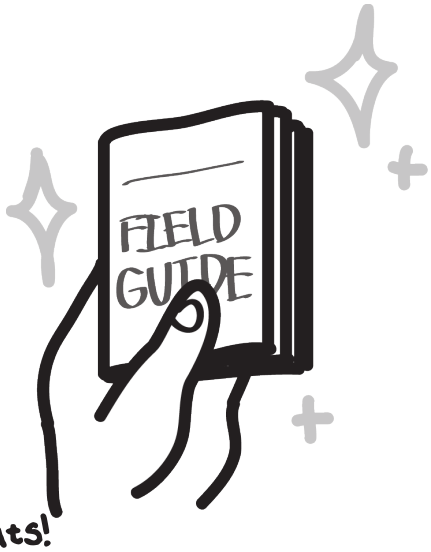
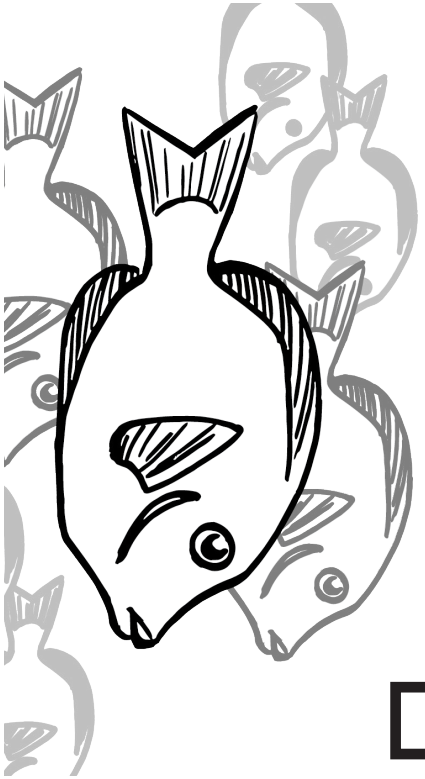
pushing the title page and the adjacent panel, close the book (like a clamshell)

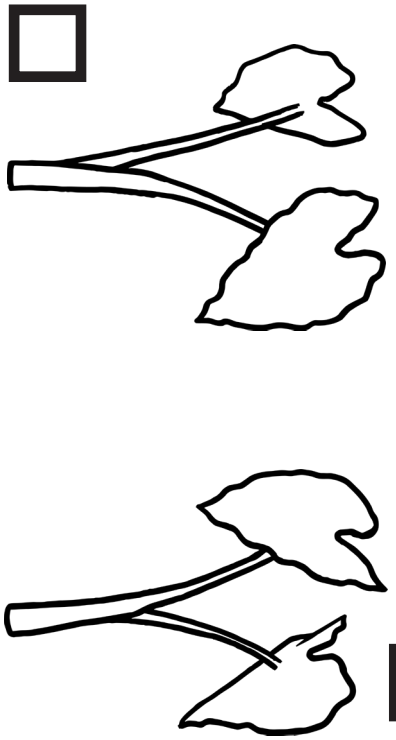
13



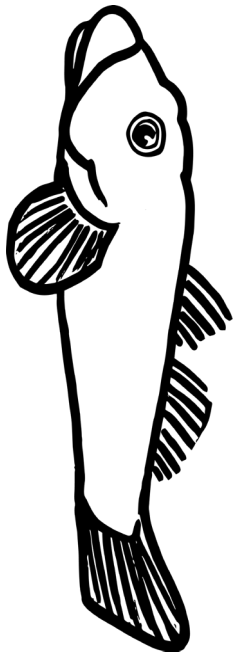
congrats!

you have a field guide!





cut on the dashed line



fold and crease on the solid lines
